

Elevators breaking down in buildings causing inconveniences and making people be late to classes. The elevators in a bunch of buildings I have gone into have been broken. This is causing people to be stuck in these elevators and making it to where people who can't take the stairs just can't get to class on time. Overall the elevators breaking constantly is a huge inconvenience.